Introduction to Bibliography and Works Cited

Directions: As you view the video, answer the following questions. Be prepared to state, in your own words, 2 reasons why it is important to use a bibliography or works cited page.

1. What are 3 sources you might use when researching?

Three sources I could use when researching are (encyclopedia, book, magazine, newspaper, person, Internet site).

2. How do writers always order their bibliography or works cited page so that it is easy for the reader to use?

Writers always use ABC order for their bibliography or works cited page.

3. A hanging or hang indent is when a writer indents all the lines except the first line.

4. The difference between a bibliography and works cited is that a bibliography lists all of the sources used while doing the research while a works cited lists only the sources actually used when writing the paper.

5. A bibliography card is a cool way to keep a list of your sources by writing the citation, place you found the source, and a number that shows which source it is as you do your research.

6. When you write the important information needed for a bibliography, what are you doing?

When I write the important information needed for a bibliography, I am citing the source.

7. What does plagiarism mean?

Plagiarism means literary theft. Plagiarism means stealing another person's thoughts, ideas or work.

Any answer along these lines is acceptable. I would not expect students to write the entire definition.

8. Why is it important to use a bibliography or works cited page? (Use back of paper if necessary)

*It is important to use a bibliography or works cited page to give credit to the source and show your reader where you found the information.
